Instructions

The list below shows the components to each Fix It! Grammar weekly exercise.

Although Mark It is listed before Fix It, the student may choose to Fix It first and then Mark It. This is acceptable because the Fix It! Grammar exercises are like a word puzzle. The goal is to complete the lists at the top of the student page for each passage.

Students should discuss their work with the teacher after working through each daily passage. However, older students may work with their teacher on a weekly basis. Students should actively be involved in comparing their work with the Teacher's Manual. The repetition of finding and fixing their own mistakes allows them to recognize and avoid those mistakes in the future.

Fix It! Grammar should be treated as a game. Keep it fun!

Learn It!

On the first day of the new Week, read through the Learn It section. Each Learn It covers a concept that the student will practice in future passages. Instructions for marking and fixing passages are included in each Learn It.

Read It! Read the day's passage.

Look up the bolded vocabulary word in a dictionary and pick the definition that fits the context of the story. Maintain a list of vocabulary words and their definitions.

The vocabulary definitions are printed in the Teacher's Manual.

Mark It! Mark the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page.

Fix It! Correct the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page.

The Teacher's Manual includes detailed explanations for grammar concepts and punctuation in each daily passage.

Rewrite It!

After marking, correcting, and discussing the passage with the teacher, copy the corrected passage on the lines provided or into a separate notebook.

- Copy the corrected story, not the editing marks.
- Indent and use capital letters properly.
- Copy the corrected punctuation.

Helpful Hints

Use different colors for Mark It and Fix It.

When you complete the book, remove the daily passages.

Use the remaining Learn It pages as a quick grammar reference.

- Appendix I Complete Story Familiarize yourself with the story that you will be editing by reading the complete story found in Appendix I.
- Appendix II Collection Pages Look for strong verbs, quality adjectives, and -ly adverbs in this book and write them on the collection pages in Appendix II.
- Appendix III Lists Refer to the lists found in Appendix III to quickly identify pronouns, prepositions, verbs, and conjunctions.
- Appendix IV Grammar Glossary Reference the Grammar Glossary found in Appendix IV of the Teacher's Manual for more information about the concepts taught in the Fix It! Grammar series.

Fix It! Grammar Cards are an optional product that will enhance the Fix It! Grammar learning experience.

Fix It! Grammar Cards

Thirty full color grammar cards highlight key Fix It! Grammar concepts for quick and easy reference.

For a more relaxed and entertaining way to drill and review grammar concepts learned, instructions for a download of multiple game ideas are included in the card pack.

Fix It! Grammar Cards are beautifully designed and come in a sturdy card box for easy storage.

Learn It!

Every word belongs to a word group—a part of speech. There are eight parts of speech: noun, pronoun, verb, preposition, conjunction, adjective, adverb, interjection.

Parts of Speech

Noun

A noun names a person, place, thing, or idea.

A compound noun is two or more words combined to form a single noun. This includes proper nouns with two or more words, such as King Richard.

Article Adjective

The article adjectives are a, an, the. A noun follows an article adjective.

Pronoun

A pronoun replaces a noun in order to avoid repetition. It refers back to some person or thing recently mentioned and takes the place of that person or thing.

There are many types of pronouns. Personal pronouns take the place of common and proper nouns. Review the personal pronouns in Appendix III.

Preposition

A preposition starts a phrase that shows the relationship between a noun or pronoun and another word in the sentence. A prepositional phrase always begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun. Review the prepositions in Appendix III.

Memorize It! preposition + noun (no verb)

Mark It!

Write n above each noun. Use a single n for a compound noun. Write ar above each article and pr above each pronoun. Underline each prepositional phrase.

Robin Hood and his men lived in the forest.

Tests: the two

List: Appendix III

Preposition

Definition:

A preposition starts a phrase that shows the relationship between a noun or pronoun and another word in the sentence.

Pattern: preposition + noun (no verb)

List: Appendix III

Capitalization

Capitalize the first word of a sentence.

Capitalize proper nouns.

Capitalize the personal pronoun I.

Fix It! Place three short lines below letters that should be capitalized.

robin lived in sherwood forest. he told his men, "i will hunt with you."

End Mark

Use a period at the end of a statement.

Use a question mark at the end of a question.

Use an exclamation mark at the end of a sentence that expresses strong emotion.

Fix It! Place the correct end mark at the end of each sentence.

Did Robin give up? He would never quit! He was used to challenges.

Indentation

Notice that some sentences are indented. An indented sentence means that the sentence begins a new paragraph.

In fiction (stories), there are four reasons to start a new paragraph: new speaker, new topic, new place, new time.

Verb

A verb shows action, links the subject to another word, or helps another verb. To determine if a word is a verb, use the verb test.

An action verb shows action or ownership.

A linking verb links the subject to a noun or adjective. The words below are linking verbs.

Memorize It!

am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been seem, become, appear, grow, remain taste, sound, smell, feel, look

A helping verb helps an action verb or a linking verb. The helping verb is always followed by another verb. The words below are helping verbs.

Memorize It!

am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been have, has, had, do, does, did, may, might, must can, will, shall, could, would, should

Every verb has a subject. The subject and verb (s v) belong together.

Subject

A subject is a noun or pronoun that performs a verb action. It tells who or what the clause is about.

Find It! Read the sentence and look for the verb.

Ask, "Who or what ____ (verb)?"

Mark It! Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

Robin had practiced archery for many years.

His skills were incredible.

Strong Verb

A strong verb dresses up writing because it creates a strong image or feeling. A strong verb is an action verb, never a linking or helping verb. Look for strong verbs in this book and write them on the Strong Verb collection page, Appendix II.

Coordinating Conjunction

Definition:
A coordinating conjunction connects the same type of words, phrases, or clauses.

Acronym: FANBOYS

Conjunction

A conjunction connects words, phrases, or clauses.

A coordinating conjunction connects the same type of words, phrases, or clauses.

Memorize It! F A N B O Y S for and nor but or yet so

Robin strolled through the forest and whistled happily.

Because the items that the cc connects must be grammatically the same, and connects two verbs, strolled and whistled. It does not connect the noun forest and the verb whistled.

Comma

A comma is used to separate items in a sentence. This week you will learn two comma rules.

Do not use a comma before a coordinating conjunction when it connects two items in a series unless they are main clauses. PATTERN a and b

Mark It! Write cc above each coordinating conjunction.

Fix It! Remove a comma before a coordinating conjunction that connects only two items in a series. Add commas to separate three or more items in a series.

Robin was brave, but reckless.

He chose his arrow, pulled it back, and let it fly.

Contraction

A contraction combines two words into one. It uses an apostrophe to show where a letter or letters have been removed.

Fix It! Place an apostrophe to show where a letter or letters have been removed.

Robin decided that he shouldn't give up.

Adjective

An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

An adjective tells which one, what kind, how many, or whose.

Memorize It!

which one? what kind? how many? whose?

Robin crossed the slippery bridge.

An adjective usually comes before the word it describes. The adjective slippery describes bridge. What kind of bridge? slippery

The bridge appeared slippery.

An adjective may follow a linking verb. The linking verb (appeared) links the subject (bridge) to an adjective (slippery). The adjective slippery describes bridge. What kind of bridge? slippery

Robin carried his bow.

Because the possessive pronouns my, your, his, her, its, our, their function as adjectives, you will now mark them as adjectives. The pronoun his replaces Robin's and functions as an adjective. Whose bow? his

Find It! Find the nouns and pronouns in the sentence.

> Once you find a noun or pronoun, ask the adjective questions to identify the adjectives.

Mark It! Write adj above each adjective.

> adj adi

Robin strolled through the quiet woods with his bow.

adi Robin's skill in archery was famous.

Capitalization

Capitalize proper adjectives formed from proper nouns.

The English flag flew at King Richard's castle.

The proper adjective English comes from the proper noun England, the name of a specific country. The proper adjective King Richard's comes from the proper noun King Richard, the name of a specific person.

Quality Adjective

A quality adjective dresses up writing because it creates a strong image or feeling. A quality adjective is more specific than a weak adjective. A weak adjective is overused, boring, or vague. Look for quality adjectives in this book and write them on the Quality Adjective collection page, Appendix II.

Adjective

Who/Which Clause

Contains: subject + verb

First Word: who or which

Commas: unless essential

Marking: w/w

Who/Which Clause

A who/which clause is a group of words that describes the noun it follows. It begins with the word who or which, a relative pronoun.

Who refers to people, personified animals, and pets. Which refers to things, animals, and places.

A who/which clause is a dependent clause, which means it must be added to a sentence that is already complete.

Robin eyed the target. (sentence)

Robin, who eved the target. (fragment)

Robin, who eyed the target, picked up his bow. (sentence)

A who/which clause contains a subject and a verb. The subject of most who/which clauses is who or which, but sometimes the subject is another word in the clause.

Mark It! Place parentheses around the who/which clause and write w/w above the word who or which. Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

Robin thought about the contest, (which he hoped to win).

The men (who worked for the king) could not be trusted.

Comma

A comma is used to separate items in a sentence. Commas are used to separate the who/which clause from the rest of the sentence unless the who/which clause changes the meaning of the sentence.

Place commas around the who/which clause if it is nonessential.

Do not place commas around the who/which clause if it is essential (changes the meaning of the sentence).

When you rewrite the passages, copy the commas correctly.

Adverb Clause

An adverb clause is a group of words that begins with a www word and contains a subject and a verb. An adverb clause is a dependent clause, which means it must be added to a sentence that is already complete.

Week 8 you learned that an adverb clause begins with a www word. A www word is called a subordinating conjunction. The acronym www.asia.b reminds us of the eight most common subordinating conjunctions.

Memorize It! when while where as since if although because

These are not the only words that begin an adverb clause. Other words can function as www words too.

Memorize It! after before until unless whenever whereas

A www word must have a subject and verb after it to begin an adverb clause.

Mark It! Place parentheses around the adverb clause and write AC above the www word. Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

The stranger would cross unless Robin stopped him.

Instructions

Although Mark It is listed before Fix It, the student may choose to Fix It first and then Mark It. This is acceptable because the Fix It! Grammar exercises are like a word puzzle. The goal is to complete the lists at the top of the student page for each passage.

Students should discuss their work with the teacher after working through each daily passage. However, older students may work with their teacher on a weekly basis. Students should actively be involved in comparing their work with the Teacher's Manual. The repetition of finding and fixing their own mistakes allows them to recognize and avoid those mistakes in the future.

Fix It! Grammar should be treated as a game. Keep it fun!

Learn It!

On the first day of the new Week, read through the Learn It section. Each Learn It covers a concept that the student will practice in future passages. Instructions for marking and fixing passages are included in each Learn It.

Read It!

Read the day's passage.

Look up the bolded vocabulary word in a dictionary and pick the definition that fits the context of the story. Maintain a list of vocabulary words and their definitions.

The vocabulary definitions are printed in the Teacher's Manual.

Mark It!

Mark the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page.

Fix It!

Correct the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page. The Teacher's Manual includes detailed explanations for grammar concepts and punctuation in each daily passage.

Rewrite It!

After marking, correcting, and discussing the passage with the teacher, copy the corrected passage on the lines provided or into a separate notebook.

- Copy the corrected story, not the editing marks.
- Indent and use capital letters properly.
- Copy the corrected punctuation.

Learn It!

Every word belongs to a word group—a part of speech. There are eight parts of speech: noun, pronoun, verb, preposition, conjunction, adjective, adverb, interjection.

For more information about the parts of speech, see the glossary.

Noun

A noun names a person, place, thing, or idea.

A compound noun is two or more words combined to form a single noun. This includes proper nouns with two or more words, such as King Richard.

Noun Tests:
the ______two ____

Article Adjective

The article adjectives are a, an, the. A noun follows an article adjective.

Pronoun

A pronoun replaces a noun in order to avoid repetition. It refers back to some person or thing recently mentioned and takes the place of that person or thing.

There are many types of pronouns. Personal pronouns take the place of common and proper nouns. Review the personal pronouns in Appendix III.

The noun the pronoun replaces is called the antecedent.

Week 3 students will learn that possessive pronouns like his and possessive nouns like Robin's function as adjectives.

Preposition

A preposition starts a phrase that shows the relationship between a noun or pronoun and another word in the sentence. A prepositional phrase always begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun. Review the prepositions in Appendix III.

preposition + noun (no verb)

Ask students to identify the nouns, article adjective, pronoun, and prepositional phrase and to explain how the prepositional phrase follows the pattern.

Mark It!

Memorize It!

Write n above each noun. Use a single n for a compound noun. Write ar above each article and pr above each pronoun. Underline each prepositional phrase.

Robin Hood and his men lived in the forest.

In what? forestin the forest starts with a preposition (in)
and ends with a noun
(forest). It has an article in between, but no verb.

Capitalization

Capitalize the first word of a sentence.

Capitalize proper nouns.

Capitalize the personal pronoun I.

Fix It! Place three short lines below letters that should be capitalized.

robin lived in sherwood forest. he told his men, "i will hunt with you."

End Mark

Use a period at the end of a statement.

Use a question mark at the end of a question.

Use an exclamation mark at the end of a sentence that expresses strong emotion.

Fix It! Place the correct end mark at the end of each sentence.

Did Robin give up? He would never quit! He was used to challenges.

Indentation

Notice that some sentences are indented. An indented sentence means that the sentence begins a new paragraph.

In fiction (stories), there are four reasons to start a new paragraph: new speaker, new topic, new place, new time.

Students will be required to identify where passages should be indented Week 15. Until then, require students to copy the indentation correctly when they rewrite the passage.

Because the compound noun forms a proper noun, both words are capitalized.

Verb

A verb shows action, links the subject to another word, or helps another verb. To determine if a word is a verb, use the verb test.

An action verb shows action or ownership.

A linking verb links the subject to a noun or adjective. The words below are linking verbs.

Memorize It!

am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been seem, become, appear, grow, remain taste, sound, smell, feel, look

A helping verb helps an action verb or a linking verb. The helping verb is always followed by another verb. The words below are helping verbs.

Memorize It!

am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been have, has, had, do, does, did, may, might, must can, will, shall, could, would, should

Every verb has a subject. The subject and verb (s v) belong together.

Subject

A subject is a noun or pronoun that performs a verb action. It tells who or what the clause is about.

Find It! Read the sentence and look for the verb.

Ask, "Who or what ____ (verb)?"

Mark It! Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

Robin had practiced archery for many years.

His skills were incredible.

Strong Verb

A strong verb dresses up writing because it creates a strong image or feeling. A strong verb is an action verb, never a linking or helping verb. Look for strong verbs in this book and write them on the Strong Verb collection page, Appendix II.

For more information about verbs, see page

Verb Test:

lt _____.

Some verbs function as either action or linking verbs.

He smelled (action) burned wood.

He smelled (linking) awful.

If you can substitute is for the verb, it is probably functioning as a linking verb.

For more information about subjects and s v pairs, see pages G-7, G-17.

Ask students to identify the subjects and verbs.

What is the verb? had practiced

Who had practiced? Robin

What is the verb? were

What were? skills

For more information about coordinating conjunctions, see page G-12.

Conjunction

A conjunction connects words, phrases, or clauses.

A coordinating conjunction connects the same type of words, phrases, or clauses.

Memorize It! F A N B O Y S for and nor but or vet so

Robin strolled through the forest and whistled happily.

Because the items that the cc connects must be grammatically the same, and connects two verbs, strolled and whistled. It does not connect the noun forest and the verb whistled.

Comma

A comma is used to separate items in a sentence. This week you will learn two comma rules.

Do not use a comma before a coordinating conjunction when it connects two items in a series unless they are main clauses. PATTERN a and b

Use commas to separate three or more items in a series. PATTERN a, b, and c

Write cc above each coordinating conjunction.

Fix It!

Mark It!

Remove a comma before a coordinating conjunction that connects only two items in a series. Add commas to separate three or more items in a series.

CC

Robin was brave, but reckless.

8

CC

He chose his arrow, pulled it back, and let it fly.

verbs: chose, pulled, let. Two commas are used. a, b, and c

Ask students to identify the coordinating conjunction and explain what it connects.

But connects two adjectives: brave,

reckless. No comma is used. a and b

And connects three

For more information about contractions, see

A contraction combines two words into one. It uses an apostrophe to show where a letter or letters have been removed.

Fix It!

Place an apostrophe to show where a letter or letters have been removed.

Robin decided that he shouldn't give up.

Ask students to identify

what letter has been removed.

The apostrophe shows where the letter o has been removed from the phrase should not.

Adjective

An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

An adjective tells which one, what kind, how many, or whose.

Memorize It!

which one? what kind? how many? whose?

Robin crossed the slippery bridge.

An adjective usually comes before the word it describes. The adjective slippery describes bridge. What kind of bridge? slippery

The bridge appeared slippery.

An adjective may follow a linking verb. The linking verb (appeared) links the subject (bridge) to an adjective (slippery). The adjective slippery describes bridge. What kind of bridge? slippery

Robin carried his bow.

Because the possessive pronouns my, your, his, her, its, our, their function as adjectives, you will now mark them as adjectives. The pronoun his replaces Robin's and functions as an adjective. Whose bow? his

Find It! Find the nouns and pronouns in the sentence.

Once you find a noun or pronoun, ask the adjective questions to identify the adjectives.

Mark It! Write adj above each adjective.

Robin strolled through the quiet woods with his bow.

adj

adj

Robin's skill in archery was famous.

Capitalization

Capitalize proper adjectives formed from proper nouns.

The English flag flew at King Richard's castle.

The proper adjective English comes from the proper noun England, the name of a specific country. The proper adjective King Richard's comes from the proper noun King Richard, the name of a specific person.

Quality Adjective

A quality adjective dresses up writing because it creates a strong image or feeling. A quality adjective is more specific than a weak adjective. A weak adjective is overused, boring, or vague. Look for quality adjectives in this book and write them on the Quality Adjective collection page, Appendix II.

For more information about adjectives, see page G-14.

Adjective Test:

the ____ pen

Students will continue to write ar above article adjectives.

Ask students to find nouns (or pronouns) and then ask questions to identify adjectives.

What kind of woods? quiet

Whose bow? his A possessive pronoun like his is a pronoun functioning as an adjective in order to show ownership.

Whose skill? Robin's A possessive noun like Robin's is a noun functioning as an adjective in order to show ownership.

What kind of skill?

The adjective famous follows the linking verb and describes the subject.

For more information about who/which clauses, see page G-39.

Who/Which Clause

A who/which clause is a group of words that describes the noun it follows. It begins with the word who or which, a relative pronoun.

Who refers to people, personified animals, and pets. Which refers to things, animals, and places.

A who/which clause is a dependent clause, which means it must be added to a sentence that is already complete.

Robin eyed the target. (sentence)

Robin, who eyed the target. (fragment)

Robin, who eyed the target, picked up his bow. (sentence)

A who/which clause contains a subject and a verb. The subject of most who/which clauses is who or which, but sometimes the subject is another word in the clause.

Mark It! Place parentheses around the who/which clause and write w/w above the word who or which. Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

S V

Robin thought about the contest, (which he hoped to win).

s I

The men (who worked for the king) could not be trusted.

Ask students to identify the subject and verb in the who/which clause and to identify the noun that the clause describes.

What is the verb? hoped

Who hoped? heThe relative pronoun which replaces the noun contest.

which he hoped to win describes contest. Commas are used because the which clause is nonessential.

What is the verb? worked

Who worked? whoThe relative pronoun who replaces the noun

who worked for the king describes men.
Commas are not used because the who clause is essential to the meaning of the sentence by telling which men could not be trusted.

At this level, help students understand why some who/which clauses have commas and some do not.

Require students to copy the commas correctly when they rewrite the passage.

Comma

A comma is used to separate items in a sentence. Commas are used to separate the who/which clause from the rest of the sentence unless the who/which clause changes the meaning of the sentence.

Place commas around the who/which clause if it is nonessential.

Do not place commas around the who/which clause if it is essential (changes the meaning of the sentence).

When you rewrite the passages, copy the commas correctly.

Adverb Clause

An adverb clause is a group of words that begins with a www word and contains a subject and a verb. An adverb clause is a dependent clause, which means it must be added to a sentence that is already complete.

Week 8 you learned that an adverb clause begins with a www word. A www word is called a subordinating conjunction. The acronym www.asia.b reminds us of the eight most common subordinating conjunctions.

Memorize It! when while where as since if although because

These are not the only words that begin an adverb clause. Other words can function as www words too.

Memorize It! after before until unless whenever whereas

A www word must have a subject and verb after it to begin an adverb clause.

Mark It! Place parentheses around the adverb clause and write AC above the www word. Write v above each verb and s above each subject.

The stranger would cross unless Robin stopped him.

Adverb Clause or Prepositional Phrase

These words usually begin adverb clauses.

when	while	where	as	since	if	although	because after	before	until	unless	wher	never	whereas	than
These words usually begin prepositional phrases.

aboard	around	between	in	opposite	toward about	as	beyond	inside	out	under
above	at	by	instead of	outside	underneath
according to	because of	concerning	into	over	unlike across	before	despite	like	past	until after	behind	down	minus	regarding	unto against	below	during	near	since	up, upon along	beneath	except	of	through	with amid	beside	for	off	throughout	within among	besides	from	on, onto	to	without

The words after, as, because, before, since and until appear on both lists. When you mark the sentences, consider the patterns.

Adverb Clause: (Before they met), Robin won every fight.

Before they met is an adverb clause.

PATTERN www word (Before) + subject (they) + verb (met)

Prepositional Phrase: Before the fight Robin was undefeated.

Before the fight is a prepositional phrase.

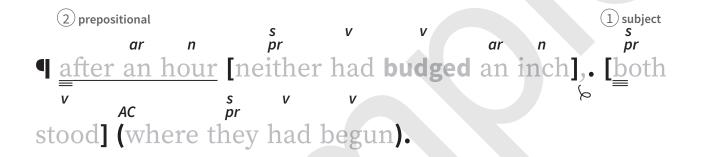

PATTERN preposition (Before) + noun (fight) (no verb)

For more information about www words, see page G-13.

Ask students to identify the subject and verb in the adverb clause.

What is the verb? stopped Who stopped? Robin
